LIFE ASSURANCE — NATIONAL LOAN FUND LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF LONDON.—General Agent's Office, 71 Wall-st. New-York. — April, 1851. Capital $2,500,000, and Surplus $42,271.

The withdrawal of the Society affords to the Assured who may take out their policies under these terms the greatest facility for the prospective payment of the sum assured by Life Assurance. On this Table is entitled at any time, to receive at interest an immediate advance, to the extent of one-half the amount of the paid annual premiums, but without personal liability, of course, of the policy, but by the endorsement thereon of the holder of the policy, so as without affecting the whole continuance of the policy. Also, in the event of the assured at any time, not requiring to continue the policy, on its surrender one-half of the annual premiums will be returned by the Society.

At the last annual investigation, reported in May, 1850, the houses declared to the assured were the option of a return of 15 per cent. on their premiums in cash, or a re-versionary addition to the original sum assured by each policy.

EXAMPLES OF BONUSES ALREADY DECLARED will be found in the Society's pamphlet, together with Tables of Rates, and other information, on application at 71 Wall-st. or at any of the agencies, free of expense.

A portion of the moderate annual premiums insure for life, if however it is to reach the end of the year, the full sum insured up to $10,000, will be paid to his family or legal representatives.
